

EXODUS PROJECT

a pathway to re-entry

Exodus Project is committed to providing support, comprehensive services, and hope to individuals transitioning from incarceration back into the shared community

OBJECTIVES

Exodus Project, Solano is working in collaboration with Solano County mental health re-entry team to address the mild to moderate mental health population.

RESOURCES PROVIDED

Counseling, employment assistance, case management, housing, clothing vouchers, transportation, and mentoring.

LOOKING FOR MENTORS

Exodus Project is looking for one-on-one mentors to work with men and women during the final months of their incarcerations and for six-months post-release.

Mentors offer non-judgmental listening, encouragement, and guidance. After the 17-hour training, mentors commit to 5-8 hours a month for a year.

Our next training begins August 2024.
