

Volunteer for Hurricane Relief Efforts!

Become a Red Cross Volunteer Today!

The American Red Cross urgently needs volunteers for Hurricane Helene and Hurricane Milton Disaster Response . Help us support disaster and shelter operations. Gain valuable experience and personal growth while making a difference. Comprehensive training and ongoing support provided. Red Cross will provide all transportation, lodging, and meals.

Volunteers Urgently Needed for the Following Positions:

Disaster Spiritual Care Team Member

Offer spiritual support and comfort to individuals and families affected by the disaster.

Mass Care Team Member

Assist with feeding, sheltering, and distributing emergency supplies to affected communities.

Logistics Team Member

Manages logistics for disaster response, including vehicle tracking, material acquisition, warehousing, and facility inspections.

Health Services or Mental Health Service

Delivers hands-on healthcare and education to clients affected by disasters. Provide emotional and mental health support to disaster survivors.

Join us at American Red Cross: Recruiting compassionate individuals to save lives, provide disaster relief, and support communities in need. Apply now!

To learn more, visit redcross.org or contact:

gabriel.castillo@redcross.org

210-500-1763

Scan with cell phone camera to apply.