

Start your own legacy!

- A committed partner volunteer liaison
 - assists Your Blood Institute's volunteer coordinator in recruiting, training and retaining volunteers within your group
 - connects with group's volunteers to build relationships
 - may form and lead a committee within organization, if beneficial
- Participation by partner's members and/or employees
- Engagement of retirees, family members and friends to join in and share in community service, if desirable

Testimonials

"I chose to volunteer to support your organization as a member of Executive Women International OKC Chapter. I have to be honest, my volunteer experience was fantastic."

– Debbie Harrigan,
President of EWI

"Although I was unable to give blood I still wanted to help, so volunteering at donor registration seemed to fit."

– Sandra Moore,
Communication Federal
Credit Union
